Resume Details

About me:

Alex makes the production process smooth, interactive, responsive and versatile. Alex's clients know from the start that he is a can-do person who rolls up his sleeves right along side the client. He understands the pressures of the business, budgets and deadlines and still gets the right shot, at the right angle, in the best light for the best price. He understands it is his client's reputation and their company's reputation on the line. At the end of the day, Alex's professional experience, creative eye and technical knowledge works to perfection guaranteeing these exceptional results over and over again.
